ABSTRACT

In this paper we describe the formatting requirements for SIGCHI Conference Proceedings, and this sample file offers recommendations on writing for the worldwide SIGCHI readership. Please review this document even if you have submitted to SIGCHI conferences before, some format details have changed relative to previous years.

Author Keywords

Guides; instructions; author's kit; conference publications; keywords should be separated by a semi-colon.

Optional section to be included in your final version, but strongly encouraged.

ACM Classification Keywords

H.5.m. Information Interfaces and Presentation (e.g. HCI): Miscellaneous

See: <http://www.acm.org/about/class/1998/> for more information and the full list of ACM classifiers and descriptors.

Optional section to be included in your final version, but strongly encouraged. On the submission page only the classifiers letter-number combination will need to be entered.

INTRODUCTION

This format is to be used for submissions that are published in the conference proceedings. We wish to give this volume a consistent, high-quality appearance. We therefore ask that authors follow some simple[?] guidelines. In essence, you should format your paper exactly like this document. The easiest way to do this is simply to download a template from the conference web site, and replace the content with your own material.

RESULT

Manipulation Check

We conducted a manipulation check to verify the success manipulation of our condition. After watching each video clip, we ask participants to rate the severity for each scenario. We found in all scenarios, the participants rated the severe condition significantly higher than the non-severe condition.

Paste the appropriate copyright statement here. ACM now supports three different copyright statements:

- ACM copyright: ACM holds the copyright on the work. This is the historical approach.
- License: The author(s) retain copyright, but ACM receives an exclusive publication license.
- Open Access: The author(s) wish to pay for the work to be open access. The additional fee must be paid to ACM.

This text field is large enough to hold the appropriate release statement assuming it is single spaced.

Every submission will be assigned their own unique DOI string to be included here.
